

NAC 140: Animal Rights
TR 12:10-1:30, 1006 Giedt Hall

Professor W. Scott McLean
wsmclean@ucdavis.edu

Nature & Culture's course in Animal Rights examines the issues of our relationships with other beings. We look especially at our understandings of the non-human world in our relationships with food animals and pets, asking, how it is that these relationships have changed over time.

Grading: TBA

Required Texts

In the Company of Animals, Serpell
Animal Liberation, P. singer
Animal Rights: A Very short Introduction, De Grazia
The Case for Animal Rights, Regan
Grizzly Years, Peacock
Animals in Translation, Grandin
In the Shadow of Man, Goodall
Reindeer Moon, Thomas